

Volunteer Opportunities

in December

We're continuing to offer scaled-back volunteer opportunities this month, exclusively to help with Holiday Giving.

Each shift is limited to one person/household (great opportunity to bring in kids/partners to experience FloCrit!). Check VolunteerHub for availability and reach out to me at tgarcia@flocritco.org with any questions.

To join us, sign up in VolunteerHub – limited space available!

Ending the year with gratitude and appreciation

Hello FloCrit Volunteers –

Well, there's no getting around it – this has been a tough year. It has required all of us to stretch and grow in new ways, and to put so many expectations on hold. At FloCrit, our priority has been how to best serve our teen families, and through that, we've seen many of our flagship volunteer opportunities change or go away for the time being, and we miss the simplicity of what used to be. But we've also seen our volunteers step up in new ways to help us carry on the work at FloCrit, whether that be helping us facilitate our new donation days, pack boxes at the food pantry, or shuttle diapers around town, we've been so fortunate to have the support and time of so many of you.

Our partnerships this year looked different, but many of our long-standing volunteer partners – corporate and philanthropic – have been so flexible and generous in meeting us where we were. Special thank you should go out to Mile High United Way, Amp the Cause, Mortenson Construction, Junior League of Denver, Twilio, Firehouse Quilts, eXp Realty, and Pinnacle Assurance, for working with us in new and creative ways, and for being patient as our schedules and needs changed, seemingly daily.

This year has made so many truths more evident, but one big truth is that campus doesn't run as smoothly, or feel as full and vibrant without volunteer support, and we are so grateful for all the ways volunteers have showed up this year. I know we have the winter to get through, and probably even the spring, but I look forward to a time when we start building all our layers of people and programs back into daily campus life and feeling that richness again. Until then, thanks for sticking with us.

Happy Holidays, and Happy New Year,

Theresa & Maggie
